Preface

BY EARL MARLATT

If Whitman was speaking for all the arts rather than for poetry alone when he wrote, ' To have great poets there must be great audiences, too,' the present hour is most opportune for the publication of the American Student Hymnal. Its appeal is to an audience as ruthlessly scornful of the shoddy or pretentious as it is sincerely appreciative of the genuine. Young intelligence in the United States accepts the traditional or the novel only if they meet the double test of finesse and livingness. These are the standards by which it measures the desirability of all its experiences, on the athletic field, over the radio, at the theater, in the class-room and in church and chapel. Are they vivid? Are they done with distinction? Are they real?

This attitude is as easily explainable as it is commendable. The American student of today, whether in university, college, academy, high school, church or church-school discussion group, lives in an age when celestial vikings in every field of endeavor are faring fearlessly into the farthest blue. Horizons are lifting so rapidly as to demand constantly changing perspectives and more compelling incentives. Everywhere there is quest for a dynamic strong enough to carry life to the expanding limits of youthful vision and achievement.

The editor of a hymnal intended for such students will be wary of approaching his task ' like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams.' Rather must he be very much alive to his audience: What are its spiritual needs? Can these be met by hymnody? Are religious songs that will satisfy the cravings of the modern spirit now available? If not, can they be evoked from living artists in the allied fields of poetry and music?

To the challenge of these questions the American Student Hymnal brings a bravely affirmative answer. Its selections from earlier hymnody prove that many Latin and evangelical hymns are still vivid and artistic enough to satisfy the fastidious tastes of modern youth. To these have been added the most ruggedly spiritual of present-day lyrics set to tunes of corresponding lift and vigor. Poets have been both willing and eager to coöperate; they have realized that poems are likely to languish and die in musty anthologies, but that hymns have a way of caroling on in the hearts and lives of men. Composers of like insight have shared the enthusiasms of the poets and have set these lyrics to equally adventurous rhythms. In this way wider recognition has been given to innumerable poems, which, set to singable music, will continue to express the high raptures of an age of vision.

A hymnal of the perspective, which this seeks to achieve, can be appreciated only with something of the same perspective. It is koyed to the possibilities as well as the sympathies of its audiences. Its newer offerings must be studied and taught if they are to convey the aesthetic and religious values that they carry. Some of them will not become immediately popular. They would have little enduring appeal to the critical tastes of modern youth if they did. It is just this which makes the present compilation in a twofold sense a Student Hymnal; it reflects the student's daring and buoyant spirit; it also offers him a field for unlimited study in the appreciation and expression of fresh hymnic motifs, rhythms, caesuras, and harmonic effects.

Its publication is doubly timely, then, since it is coincident with the nationwide renaissance of glee clubs, all eager to slough off the trammels of 'the collegiate' for repertoire of more artistic livingness.' To such the basso profundo rhythms of William Blake and Francis Thompson will make an irresistible appeal, as will also the masculine spirituality of Rupert Brooke, Joyce Kilmer, and John Masefield. The very challenge of such lyrics will commend the book to souls, who, like another student, Charles Hamilton Sorley, have felt the lure of ' blue horizons far away.'

In 'An Inland Voyage,' Robert Louis Stevenson describes a Gothic cathedral so graphically that only quotation can do justice to its vividness:
' Mankind was never so happily inspired as when it made a cathedral: a thing as single and specious as a statue to the first glance, and yet, on examination, as lively and interesting as a forest. I could never fathom how a man dares to lift up his voice to preach in a cathedral. 'Tis the best preacher itself and preaches day and night; not only telling you of man's art and aspirations in the past, but convicting your own soul of ardent sympathies; or rather, like all good preachers, it sets you to preaching to yourself; and every man is his own doctor of divinity in the last resort.'

It is not too much to hope that the American Student Hymnal sympathetically presented to the audiences for which it is intended, will become such a cathedral of song, capable of providing a quietly colorful atmosphere for the most varied services and of voicing, through modern lyrics and melodies, the medieval aspiration of vaulted ceilings and spires against the sky.

Welcome, happy morning ..... 332
Welcome, morning, bright and blue ..... 200
When I survey the wondrous cross ..... 376
When morning gilds the skies ..... 201
When the golden evening gathered ..... 76
When the night is still and far ..... 13
When through the whirl of wheels. ..... 184
When wilt thou save the people ..... 241
Where cross the crowded ways of life ..... 60
Where is thy God, my soul ..... 16
Where is your God, they say ..... 3
Whenever war, with its red woes ..... 228
Who goes there, in the night ..... 122
Wild roars the blast, the storm is high ..... 115
Workman, of God, O lose not heart ..... 173
Ye servants of God, your Master pro- claim ..... 385
Yea, o'er me soared the eternal sky. ..... 205

4. We have the power to make or mar This heritage and home;
Lord, look not on us as we are
But as we shall become,
When we have made on Earth complete Thy Kingdom where all kingdoms meet.

5 To thee, O young and princely Heart, All living things return: We love not them and thee apart, For through that love we learn In them to feel and hear and see The radiant certainty of thee.

1 Ancient of Days, who sittest throned in glory,
To thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blessed the wide world's wondrous story With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

20 Holy Father, who hast led thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.
30 Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour, Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behavior, And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

4 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-Giver, Thine is the quickening power that gives increase; From thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river, Our plenty, wealth, prosperity and peace.
5 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring, Praise we the goodness that has crowned our days; Pray we, that thou wilt hear us, still imploring Thy love and favor, kept to us always.

Translated by Catherine Winkworth, 1855

It mat-ters not what foes in-tend How-ev-er fierce and strong.
That God the high - est and the best, My friend and Fa -ther is.
For ver - y joy it smiles and sings, Sees naught but sun-shine glad.
I sing for joy of that which lies Storedup for me a-bove. A-men.

2 One the light of God's own presence O'er his faithful people shed, Chasing far the gloom and terror, Brightening all the path we tread:

One the object of our journey, One the faith which never tires, One the earnest looking forward, One the hope our God inspires:

3 One the strain which lips of thousands Lift as from the heart of one;

1 The shadows of the evening hours
Fall from the darkening sky;
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie.
Before Thy throne, O Lord of heaven,
We kneel at close of day;
Look on Thy children from on high, And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
$O$ do not Thou despise.
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.
3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade:
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart.
Slowly the bright stars one by one,
Within the heavens shine;
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.
4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our hopes descend;
From midnight fears, and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil;
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we labour, Lord, Oh give us now repose. Amen.

1 The day is past and over;
All thanks, O Lord, to Thee!
I pray Thee that offenceless
The hours of dark may be.
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And save me through the coming night!
2 The joys of day are over;
I lift my heart to Thee;
And call on Thee that sinless
The hours of gloom may be.
O Jesus, make their darkness light,
And/ save me through the coming night!

3 The toils of day are over;
I raise the hymn to Thee;
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be;
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night!
4 Lord, that in death I sleep not,
And lest my foe should say,
"I have prevailed against him,"
Lighten mine eyes. I pray;
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night!
5 Be Thou my soul's Preserver,
O God! for Thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go.
Lover of men, O hear my call,
And guard and save me from them all! Amen.

1 The day Thou gavest. Lord, is ended, The darkness falls at Thy behest;
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.
2 We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.
3 As o'er each continent and island The dawn leads on another day, The voice of prayer is never silent, Nor dies the strain of praise away.

4 The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

5 So be it, Lord; Thy throne shall never, Like earth's proud empires, pass away; Thy kingdom' stands, and grows for ever, Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway. Amen.

1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid, Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.
2. Cold on His cradle the dew-drops are shining,

Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all
3 Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean, Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?
4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.
5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid. Amen.

1 Come, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home;
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of harvest-home.

2 All the world is God's own field, Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown, Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear;
Grant, O harvest Lord, that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.
4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There, for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide;
Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home. Amen.

1 Eternal Father! strong to save, Whose arm hath bound the restless wave, Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
Oh hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea!

2 O Christ! Whose voice the waters heard And hushed their raging at Thy word, Who walked'st on the foaming deep, And calm amidst its rage didst sleep; O hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea!

3 Most Holy Spirit, Who didst brood Upon the chaos dark and rude, And bid its angry tumult cease, And give, for wild confusion, peace; Oh hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea!

4 O Trinity of love and power! Our brethren shield in danger's hour; From rock and tempest, fire and foe, Protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee Glad hymns of praise from land and sea Amen

1 Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room For Thy holy nativity.
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.
2 Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
But in lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility.
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.
3 The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the desert of Galilee.
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word, That should set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn, They bore Thee to Calvary, O come to my heart, Lord Jesus! Thy Cross is my only plea.

5 When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing At Thy coming to victory, Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room, There is room at My side for thee." And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus, When Thou comest and callest for me. Amen.

Philip Pusey, 1840, based on M. A. Lowenstern, 1644
1 Lord of our life, and God of our salvation, Star of our night, and hope of every nation, Hear and receive Thy Church's supplication, Lord God Almighty.

2 See round Thine Ark the hungry billows curling! See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling! Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling, Thou canst preserve us.

3 Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armour faileth; Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth; Lord, o'er Thy Rock nor death nor hell prevaileth; Grant us Thy peace, Lord!

4 Peace, in our hearts, our evil thoughts assuaging, Peace, in Thy Church, where brothers are engaging, Peace, when the world its busy war is waging; Calm Thy foes raging!

5 Grant us Thy help till backward they are driven; Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven; Grant peace on earth, and after we have striven, Peace in Thy heaven. Amen.

1 Lead us, O Father, in the paths of peace;
Without Thy guiding hand we go astray,
And doubts appall and sorrows still increase;
Lead us through Christ, the true and living Way.
2 Lead us, Oh Father, in the paths of truth;
Unhelped by Thee, in error's maze we grope,
While passion stains, and folly dims our youth,
And age comes on, uncheered by faith and hope.

3 Lead us, O Father, in the paths of right; Blindly we stumble when we walk alone. Involved in shadows of a darksomes night. Only with Thee we journey safely on.
4 Lead us, O Father, to Thy heavenly rest, However rough and steep the path may be, Through joy or sorrow, as Thou deemest best, Until our lives are perfected in Thee. Amen.

1 The spacious firmament on high, With all the blue ethereal sky, And spangled heavens, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim, The unwearied sun, from day to day, Does his Creator's power display, And publishes to every land The work of an almighty Hand.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail, The moon takes up the wondrous tale, And nightly to the listening earth Repeats the story of her birth; Whilst all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence all Move round this dark terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amidst their radiant orbs be found;
In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice;
For ever singing as they shine, "The Hand that made us is Divine." Amen.

1 Jesus, and shall it ever be, A mortal man ashamed of Thee?
Ashamed of Thee, Whom angels praise, Whose glories shine through endless days?
2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far Let night disown each radiant star; 'Tis midnight with my soul, till He, Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.
3 Ashamed of Jesus! $O$ as soon
Let morning blush to own the sun;
He sheds the beams of light divine O'er this benighted soul of mine.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend On Whom my hopes of heaven depend! No; when I blush, be this my shame, That I no more revere His Name.

5 Ashamed of Jesus! empty pride! I'll boast a Saviour crucified; And O may this my portion be, My Saviour not ashamed of me. Amen.

1 We three kings of the Orient are, Bearing gifts we traverse afar, Field and fountain, Moor and mountain, Following yonder star.

O Star of Wonder, Star of Night, Star with Royal Beauty bright, Westward leading,
.Still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.
GASPARD
2 Born a King on Bethlehem plain, Gold I bring to crown Him again;
King for ever, Ceasing never Over us all to reign.

O Star, etc.

MELCHIOR

3 Frankincense to offer have I, Incense owns a Diety nigh; Prayer and praising All men raising, Worship Him God on high.

O Star, etc.

BALTHAZAR
4 Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume Breathes a life of gathering gloom; Sorrowing, sighing, Bleeding, dying, Sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

O Star, etc.
5 Glorious now behold Him arise, King and God, and Sacrifice;
Heaven sings
Alleluia,
Alleluia the earth replies.
O Star, etc.

1 When Christ was born of pure Marie, In Bethlehem, that fair citie, The Angels sang with mirth and glee, In Excelsis Gloria!

In Excelsis! In Excelsis! In Excelsis! Gloria!
In Excelsis! In Excelsis! In Excelsis! Gloria!
2 The herdsmen saw those Angels bright, To them appearing with great light, Who said, "God's Son is born this night." In Excelsis! Gloria! etc.

3 This King has come to save mankind In Scripture promised, as we find, Therefore this song we have in mind, In Excelsis! Gloria! etc.

4 Grant us. O Lord, for Thy great grace In Heaven, the bliss to see Thy face, Where we may sing to Thy solace, In Excelsis! Gloria! etc.

1 O kind, firm moulder of a thousand boys, Mother of destinies, dear lovely place, Where glamorous beauty dwells, and unguessed joys Give work and play an unsuspected grace.

2 How like a little city, beauty-clad, You stand in ivied loveliness and charm; Beholding you, the student's heart is glad; He goes secure to your enfolding arm.

3 Here have the gleaming years of youth been spent. These halls have been a home to us in long Days carefree, rich with open wonderment, Till now we sing a retrospective song.

4 Our mutual joys, our friendly loves and hates, Our common cheers, this consort in sweet song, The games of youth, the learning love creates, Shall all return to us some years along.

5 And they shall seem to us in that far day Like unforseen, fond meetings with old friendsWith kindly peace shall bear our grief away, And help us home with Hope that Memory sends.

6 Into the world with fearless step and free We soon shall pass. In these propitious days The torch is lit. God give us grace that we May bear that glorious light long, long ablaze.

[^1]:    4 One day when I was walkin' along, Oh, yes, Lord!
    De elements opened, an' de Love came down, Oh, yes, Lord!
    5 I never shall forget dat day, Oh , yes, Lord!
    When Jesus washed my sins away, Oh, yes, Lord!
